“TEA TIME WITH THE AUTHORS”

3rd Annual African American Women Writers Luncheon
Celebrating Women’s History Month 2006

African American women writers have traveled a long, difficult, yet rich, and fulfilling life. To pen their thoughts, ideas, beliefs, and dreams to paper for others to read during a time when there was no equality for women nor Blacks.

Today, men and women of all ethnic backgrounds can identify and treasure their writings, many of which are praised to be the best of its kind. It is in the spirit of our mothers of yesterday and our mentors of today that we celebrate the writings of our very own with you.

Join us for lunch as we discuss our passions and purpose for writing. You just might even unleash your own potential to pick up the pen for prose!
